Congratulations to the MCS Baseball team

for sweeping Reeltown on Friday!! We now advance to the 4th round of the state playoffs.

At this time, we are scheduled to host the 4th round of playoffs on Thursday and Friday, May 12th and May 13th. HOWEVER, there is a chance that those games could be moved up to as early as Tuesday and Wednesday or possibly Wednesday and Thursday. This decision will be made in accordance to the wishes of the Alabama High School Athletic Association

Congratulations!!

Congratulations to Madelyn Bell and Lexie Rose for being winners in the Mobile County 2016

'Color by Kids Art Competition'. It is sponsored by Springhill Medical Center. This year there were over 450 entries. Only 12 pieces are selected to receive awards. Madelyn Bell won 1st place in the K-2nd grade category. She received a Michael's gift card and an engraved plaque that will be displayed at school. Lexie Rose received 3rd place in the 3rd-5th grade category and received a Michael's gift card. The school also received a cash award to be used for our art program. Their artwork has been professionally framed and will be part of a traveling art show throughout the summer. After that the artwork will be returned to Springhill Hospital where it will be on permanent display.

The Book Fair will be stay open through tomorrow May 10th.

“Cents for St. Jude’s” Fundraiser- The pennies have been counted and a total has been tallied for our “Cents for St. Jude’s” Fundraiser conducted by the MCS Service Club. $1,376.99 was contributed by the students and families at Mobile Christian School.
